Dear Parents and Carers,

Kevin Graal: Talking Tales

On Monday 3rd December we are having a specialist English week across the school with all classes working on the popular picture book, 'Night of the Gargoyles'. To launch our English week and ensure it gets off to a super start, we will be hosting the children's storyteller, Kevin Graal, who will be with us for the day, working with the whole school and then with each individual class.

Kevin is a highly skilled children's storyteller with a repertoire of interactive stories, riddles, songs and rhymes from around the world. He is an inspiring educator, working with an impressive range of partners from schools and community groups, to leading arts and educational organisations such as Tate Modern, the British Library and the British Council. Do have a look at his website for more information: <http://www.talkingtales.org/schools.html>

We are asking for a contribution of £3.00 per child towards this experience which we believe will be a hugely positive, inspiring and exciting one for the children. Kindly submit your payment via SchoolMoney by Friday 30th November.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs C Marshall
